

Steel Belt Systems

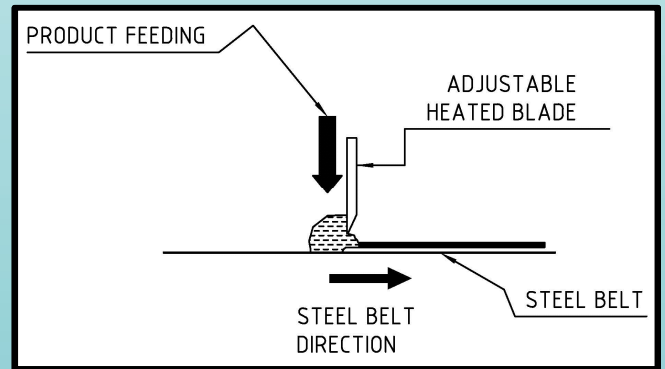

Chemical & Rubber Feeding devices

Casting device

The casting device is suitable to feed colloidal blends with medium-high viscosity.

The height of the blade in respect to the belt surface is adjustable by means of four hand wheels, which allow to adjust the alignment between the blade's plane and the belt's plane too .

The blade is designed according to SBS Steel Belt Systems S.r.l. standards; alternative materials and profiles are available upon request.

Casting device details:

