

Steel Belt Systems

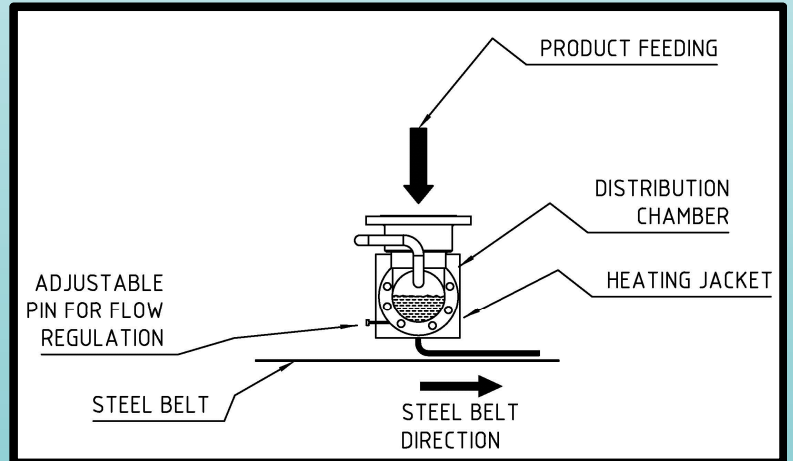

Chemical & Rubber Feeding devices

Feeding device strips former

The strips former is suitable to feed strips on belts for a wide range of products.

The flow of the material is distributed by an internal chamber; the chamber can be easily cleaned or inspected by means of the two openable flanges located in the external limits of the chamber.

The adjustable pins can regulate the output of the product from the holes of the die.

Strips former details:

