

Steel Belt Systems

Chemical & Rubber Feeding devices

Feeding device Weir Feeder

The weir feeder is suitable to feed a layer of very liquid products that are not infected by the presence of air. Our feeders are available for all widths of belts and can be placed on existing belt machines too. Pivoting system including pneumatic lifting device, for easy cups cleaning, are available under request.

The weir feeder's functional scheme is reported sideways:

Weir feeder:

